PASTEUR TREATMENT AT HOME.

During the last year the State Board of Health has administered the Pasteur treatment for the prevention of rabies to thirty-six people. And none have developed the disease. We know of only one person bitten by a mad dog who did not take the Pasteur treatment, and he died of hydrophobia.

All of the thirty-six cases have been treated in Jacksonville. That is a little better for the people of Florida than going to Atlanta—a little saving in railroad fare, besides there is no cost to the individual for the treatment.

But even that is not as it should be. It should be so that any person in the State could take the Pasteur treatment at home and with a minimum of expense. And that is what the State Board of Health have arranged for now.

Henceforth the Pasteur treatment will be administered in Florida as follows:

When one is bitten by a supposedly rabid animal, in any part of the State, he at once calls the family physician. The doctor treats the wound, and then sends the animal's head packed in ice, to the laboratory of the State Board of Health. The head is examined and if the animal is found to be suffering from rabies, the State Board of Health at once orders the Pasteur treatment sent to the physician in attendance on the patient. A member of the staff of the State Board of Health who has had experience in the administration of the treatment, calls on the physician and family and goes over the entire subject with them.

Now the patient calls at his physician's office once a day and gets his treatment. The rest of the time the patient goes about his business. The treatment ordinarily lasts twenty-one days. The patient then pays the physician's fees which are usually $21.00. The State Board of Health pays for the preparation of the treatment. The total cost then to the patient is $21.00 and no loss of time to sustain. And this $21.00 goes to his family physician.

This arrangement is unique, in that Florida is the only place in the world where it is done just that way. Its advantages are that it brings the treatment to every man's door, with a minimal expense, and without loss of time.

The State Board of Health is never so happy as when it can advance the interests of the people of Florida.

LETTER FROM MRS. ADAMS

The world is glorious in June if judged from the temperate zone, but the air is still chill in the northwest, and frequent rains retard the work of the farmer; when I observe their anxious faces it occurs to me that an orange grove or a truck farm in Florida gives less anxiety on account of the danger of frosts for a few weeks in the winter, than the wet springs that prevent seasonable planting and cultivating of the hundred acre fields of corn, the danger of hail storms, and perhaps an autumn frost before the crop is fully matured.

From Jacksonville to St. Paul I heard discussions of the Bond tract of land at Lake Helen recently sold to the Socialist land syndicate. Not a person mentioned Lake Helen however, for the News and other Florida papers omit that magic name whenever there is pleasant or profitable opportunity for the town. This 35,000 acres of land to be opened to settlers within five years (after the Bonds have cut off the timber) lies near Lake Helen, perhaps three or four miles distant is its nearest line, and the very best land of the tract is that nearest Lake Helen. Settlers will find their brick and lumber for their buildings, and fencing, hardware, dry goods, provisions, etc., at the great brick factory and saw mills and department stores situated at Lake Helen, with trains running twice a day through the district of their purchase.

Volusia county is about a hundred miles in length, when this tract of land is spoken of as lying in this county it is an indefinite description. When it is mentioned as Indian Springs tract, it is misleading, for there is none of the land cleared or for sale near that station, besides there is no hotel or other place of entertainment there for strangers.

At Lake Helen there are excellent hotels and boarding houses. I have heard the story of men who went 2,000 miles, landed at Indian Springs, waited and hunted two weeks to learn where was located the twenty acres of land they had bought of the syndicate, but did not find it, then when money came from home to defray expenses they returned with a lasting hatred of Florida and her citizens.

FIVE PERSONS DEAD FROM TORRID WAVE

New York, June 22.—As a result of the heat wave, five persons are dead and seven prostrated and in the hospital. The heat was intense last night, the hottest this season. It was felt especially in the lower East Side where the people crowded on the roofs, sleeping in the open. The suffering was intense and extreme heat was reported throughout the city. Many were unable to stand the heat of the houses and apartments and swarmed into the parks, filling the benches and every available nook on the lawn until daylight. The authorities appreciating the situation did not interfere.

There is much valuable land in this tract if purchasers can select it for themselves, but if sold on the allotment plan there is bound to be endless dissatisfaction and loss, for there are many acres of cypress swamps that will not be tillable in this century, and is utterly valueless to the farmers.

The advice I give the endless queries propounded to me is, "Wait till fall, then go and see for yourselves." The land agent who makes millions of money from his land sales proves two things, first, that he is a crackjack at telling fairy tales, second, that the average individual is quick to catch at any opportunity advertised which carries with it hardship, risk and change of scene.

EXAMINATION ANSWERS
Miss Clara Evelyn McHugh, a teacher in one of the Topeka schools, read at a recent teachers' meeting from a collection of quaint examination answers that she had been gathering for some years, says the Chicago Journal.

The gems of Miss McHugh's collection were:
"A blizzard is the inside of a hen."
"The equator is a menagerie lion running round the earth."
"Oxygen is a thing that has eight sides."
"The cuckoo never lays its own eggs."
"A mosquito is a child of black and white parents."
